Caterboss, Strengthens its Market Position with its New Irish Headquarters, Reinforcing Rapid Expansion of Supplying Catering Equipment Online

Carlow, Ireland — 30th Nov 2023 - Caterboss, a leader in catering equipment in Ireland, proudly announces the completion of its three-storey office and warehouse facility, located in Tullow, Co. Carlow, Ireland. Representing a seven-figure investment, this brand new development symbolises the company's dedication to enhancing delivery efficiency, supporting strategic expansion, strengthening its market position, and driving sustainable growth.

Established in 2017, the online platform www.caterboss.ie showcases an extensive range and features a helpful blog section offering tips and guides for commercial catering equipment.

Serving a diverse clientele, Caterboss offers premium equipment from renowned suppliers such as, Tefcold Refrigeration, Lincat, Unifrost, and Banks. A true industry pioneer, Caterboss proudly stands as the first and only catering equipment company in Europe, and possibly the world, to accept cryptocurrency payments.

"The completion of our new facility in Tullow marks a significant milestone for Caterboss. Our presence in Tullow, County Carlow, is not just about business growth; it's about weaving ourselves into the fabric of the community, contributing significantly to the local economy, and setting a precedent for regional development that resonates on a national level," says Ciaran Kilbride, Managing Director.

"With our new expansion, Caterboss is poised to further increase convenience for Irish food and hospitality sectors through better access to equipment. We're bringing global standards to local businesses, ensuring they have what they need, when they need it," adds Kilbride.

The new headquarters, 10 meters high and spanning 10,000 sq ft, was developed by BFC Enterprises, this achievement, from foundation to ribbon-cutting in just eight months, underscores Caterboss's agility and commitment to excellence.

Located in the expansive 70-acre Lough Martin Business Park, alongside renowned businesses like Telab and Burnside, Caterboss is not just expanding its footprint but integrating itself into further into the community. Recruitment is underway, creating new job opportunities and fostering local business engagement, contributing significantly to the local economy.

The new facility is more than just a building; it's a hub of innovation and collaboration. With an eco-friendly design powered by renewable energy sources, the office embraces sustainability. The warehouse, equipped with modern logistics and storage solutions, ensures product handling with utmost care and efficiency. Collaborative workspaces, strategically located in Tullow for efficient service delivery, provide the team and clients with a superior work environment.

Caterboss extends gratitude to all who played a role in this monumental achievement — from employees and construction partners to loyal customers and suppliers. As the doors open, everyone is invited to join in celebration. Stay tuned for the grand opening event, where the innovative new home can be toured.
